

CONSTANT CONTACT SURVEY RESULTS - EXERCISE

Updated 4-20-11

Identify areas where limited resources can be shared amongst partner agencies.

Identify specific areas where partner collaboration and cooperation can occur.

Collaboration of services for individuals that do not fit "inside the box." Joining together to better serve difficult cases.

Providers in same county become more familiar with services offered by other groups/agencies in their own county.

Organize ADRN @ county level with an elected representative from each county to attend ADRN meeting as the liaison.

Collaboration among agencies to stretch limited funds.

Utilization of existing services to meet expanded needs.

Put the consumer first. How will this help the consumer?

Organizing at the county level so that we can improve coordination among providers for the consumers and their families.

Information sharing, concerns of unmet needs, networking, supporting our clients.

Increase transportation options through collaboration.

Increase Caregiver Respite options through collaboration.

Assure less duplication of services and easy access for all.

-

Create a referral resource manual specific for ADRN clients and partners.

Having a viable, affordable, up-to-date easy to use, web-based resource for providers and public.

Make sure everyone is aware of the resources that are available.

Increased access to information.

CONSTANT CONTACT SURVEY RESULTS - EXERCISE

Updated 4-20-11

Increased education.

Increased awareness.

Ability to locate, assess needs and identify needs during a disaster.

—

Provide information on proposed legislation that would affect this population.

Provide a forum for coordinating any response to proposed legislation.